Target User Persona 1: The Modern Online Shopper

Our primary consumers expect speed, security, and aesthetic appeal when browsing online stores.

SAYS:

- "I just want a simple, fast way to buy what I need without jumping through unnecessary hoops."
- "I prefer shopping on my phone during my commute, so the site must look good on mobile."

THINKS:

- "Is my payment and personal data secure here?"
- "Why does this site look so outdated? It makes me question the brand's reliability."

DOES:

- Frequently browses stores on mobile devices.
- Compares prices across multiple tabs.
- Abandons the cart immediately if the checkout process requires too many steps.

FEELS:

- Anxious about data privacy and security.
- Impatient when faced with slow page load times.
- Delighted by smooth micro-interactions, clean typography, and a native dark mode experience.

Target User Persona 2: The Store Administrator

Business owners and managers who need to maintain the store without needing deep technical knowledge.

SAYS:

- "I need to quickly update this product's price for a weekend sale and check recent orders."
- "I don't have time to learn a complicated new system just to manage my stock."

THINKS:

- "I hope I don't accidentally break the live site by changing these settings."
- "I wish I could manage everything from the same website my customers see."

DOES:

- Manages inventory on a daily basis.
- Checks order fulfillment statuses and updates promotional banners.

FEELS:

- Stressed by overly complex management tools.
- Relieved and empowered when everything is consolidated into one unified, secure dashboard.
